The award is open to all businesses on the Dingle Peninsula and the initiative is geared specifically for small to medium enterprises. It has been adapted from a model successfully undertaken in Macroom

30 diverse businesses have already signed up to participate in this local award scheme. Training and support is already underway for the participating businesses as they learn how to:

- Reduce waste & cut disposal costs
- Implement best practice in waste management
- Lower energy costs
- Reduce water consumption & water charges

Businesses will commence an improvement programme, after which they will be independently assessed and if successful will receive the Corca Dhuibhne Glas award.
